

Automation Fair®, October 25-26, 2006

Automation Fair® is the premier industry event focusing on advanced automation products, integrated control and information architecture, as well as services and solutions from Rockwell Automation and its partners. The world's largest free educational forum for manufacturers, Automation Fair® draws more than 8,000 engineers and operations leaders from around the world annually. Attendees and exhibitors can register for Automation Fair® at <http://www.ab.com/automationfair/registration/>

Automation Fair® 2006

Successful companies striving to achieve a competitive advantage in the global marketplace continuously seek new ways to leverage the enormous potential of their manufacturing operations. Whether it's power, control, or information systems that give you an advantage, today's global manufacturing leaders know that optimized production is the path to increased profitability.

Automation Fair® is the premier industry event focusing on advanced automation products, integrated control and information architecture, valued-add services and solutions. Learn how to:

- € € € € improve your product's time-to-market
- € € € € increase your company's profitability
- € € € € develop asset management and optimization strategies
- € € € € manage manufacturing business risk

A multitude of forums and venues make Automation Fair a valuable educational experience for professionals at all levels of your organization. Twenty-one hands-on labs and more than fifty technical sessions cover a wide range of advanced automation topics, each designed to help build your business and make you more productive and profitable. Plus, special industry forums hosted by experts provide a close, detailed look at the latest trends in the Life Sciences, Food and Beverage, Marine, and Water/Wastewater industries. Automation Fair provides an extensive range of options, all available under one roof.