PFCU Joins in Cedar Park Fair

Philadelphia, PA, October 30, 2006 – On Saturday, September 30, Philadelphia Federal Credit Union was on hand to usher in the fall season and celebrate the Annual Cedar Park Fair. With a donation of $1,000 to the Cedar Park Neighbors Association, PFCU was the main event sponsor.

PFCU employees from the West Philadelphia Branch distributed gifts to neighborhood children as well as information to parents about PFCU membership and the benefits of youth accounts. During the fair, PFCU presented members of the Cedar Park Fair Committee with a check for $1,000.

The Annual Cedar Park Fair was held across from PFCU's West Philadelphia Branch, located at 50th Street and Baltimore Avenue. The fair was packed with children's activities, information tables, prizes, great food, and live entertainment, featuring the Gwendolyn Bye Dancers and the Eastwick Commandoes Drill Team.

Cedar Park Neighbors (CPN) is an association of diverse households and businesses based in the Cedar Park neighborhood of West Philadelphia. The association fosters collaboration among all persons living and working in the Cedar Park neighborhood, promotes community development, provides a forum for communication and community education, responds to neighborhood concerns, and promotes the general welfare of the Cedar Park community.

Philadelphia Federal Credit Union was founded in 1951 and is currently among the top credit unions in the city, serving the entire Philadelphia and Bloomsburg, PA communities, in addition to the owners, employees and directors of over 600 organizations throughout Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.
