SPADT OF RATNERPRESTIA ELECTED AS EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE PA STATE ASSOCIATION OF FIRST CLASS TOWNSHIP COMMISSIONERS

Valley Forge, Pa., September 2006 – Jonathan H. Spadt, a Shareholder and member of the Management Committee with RatnerPrestia, has accepted an appointment as the Executive Director of the Montgomery County Chapter of the Pennsylvania State Association of First Class Township Commissioners (PSATC). This organization has the primary objective of fostering improved municipal government in Pennsylvania by providing appropriate technical assistance and research services. The organization represents the interests of First Class Township Commissioners, and serves local governments by providing programs, cost-effective services, and legislation which strengthen the autonomy of Pennsylvania municipalities. Mr. Spadt currently serves as a Commissioner of Lower Pottsgrove Township in Montgomery County.

In its third decade, RatnerPrestia is one of the largest intellectual property law firms in the Mid-Atlantic region. Its clients range from start-up companies to multi-billion dollar corporations, both domestic and international, and include well-known institutions and universities.
