GWYNEDD-MERCY COLLEGE NAMED TO HIGHER EDUCATION
COMMUNITY SERVICE HONOR ROLL

GWYNEDD VALLEY, PA (November 8, 2006) –Gwynedd-Mercy College is proud to announce that the College has been named to the first ever President’s Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll, Being included on the honor roll reflects the College’s continuing commitment to the Mercy tradition of service to society.

According to the Learn and Serve America, a program for the Corporation for National and Community Service, “the award is given to colleges and universities whose students have made recognizable service contributions to their local community and is sponsored by the Corporation for National and Community Service, the President’s Council on Service and Civic Participation, the USA Freedom Corps, and the U.S. Departments of Education and Housing and Urban Development.”

The Corporation for National and Community Service’s comprehensive report “College Students Helping America” explains that “college student volunteering increased by approximately 20 percent between 2002 and 2005, as students have become involved in helping their communities.”

More information about the Community Service Honor Roll can be found online at <http://www.nationalservice.gov/>.

Gwynedd-Mercy College, founded in 1948 and sponsored by the Sisters of Mercy, is a coeducational institution offering associate, baccalaureate and master’s degree programs, both full and part-time, in business, arts and sciences, education, nursing and allied health professions. This year, Gwynedd-Mercy College is celebrating the legacy of Mercy education and the 100th anniversary of the original estate that sits at the heart of our campus. The College is located in Gwynedd Valley, PA on Sumneytown Pike, between routes 309 and 202.
