

Calling All Customer Service Superstars! Miles Technologies & NBC-10 Announce Miles Service Superstar Search 2007

Miles Technologies and NBC-10 would like to know if your business is a Delaware Valley Customer Service Superstar. What do your clients say about your customer service? Does your team go above and beyond the call for clients? Is your customer service philosophy the best in your market? Do you have raving fans? If so, please visit <http://www.nbc10.com> or visit Miles Technologies online at <http://www.milestechnologies.com> and click on the Miles Service Superstar button.

An event in February 2007 at The Enterprise Center in Mount Laurel will feature some of the more unique, successful, efficient and progressive customer service success stories and philosophies shared by companies throughout the Delaware Valley. Details available at NBC-10 and Miles Technologies.
