20nine Design Studios Continues to Gain New Business

Conshohocken, PA (January 2007) – 20nine Design Studios, LLC (www.20nine.com) of Conshohocken, Pa., specializing in branding and graphic design services, continues to land notable clients including Lincoln Financial Distributors, Drexel University's LeBow College of Business and Preferred Real Estate Investments.

20nine expands its financial industry reach with several large initiatives for Lincoln Financial Distributors, which markets and sells Lincoln-manufactured variable and fixed annuities, life insurance, and investment management products through financial advisors, financial intermediaries and sales professionals. 20nine will partner with Lincoln Financials creative services team to develop materials for four main areas: thought leadership, practice management, enterprise wide initiatives and continuing education. Projects will include event planning materials, compliance/regulatory collateral, wholesaler and advisor materials.

Drexel University's LeBow College of Business has selected 20nine to provide creative services for several initiatives including executive education, undergraduate programs and alumni outreach. The College strives to empower, enrich and inspire future business leaders through an innovative, strategic approach to business education defined by leadership and ethics, industry perspectives and technological orientation. Most recently, 20nine designed a holiday card for the Dean of the College, and redesigned a publication which focused on the growth and expansion of the LeBow College of Business.

Preferred Real Estate Investments Inc. is a nationally-recognized developer, owner and operator of office, industrial and mixed-use real estate properties in markets across the United States. Preferred Real Estate Investments has commissioned 20nine to assist with their broker communications. Projects will include designing targeted HTML email templates, event collateral, newsletters, and broker marketing materials.
