About Campus Philly

Campus Philly is a nonprofit organization working together with higher education, business and public institutions to connect students to a "Greater" Philadelphia. Campus Philly promotes the region as "one big campus," full of opportunities for personal and professional exploration throughout the student life cycle-from college prospect, to enrolled student, to recent graduate. Through positive first-hand experiences and better connections to the workforce, more college graduates are choosing to live and work in Greater Philadelphia after earning their degree.
