

Philadelphia In the Movies Tour

On June 2nd the Greater Philadelphia Film Office will launch the second season of the “Philadelphia In The Movies” Tour. This new resident and tourist attraction showcases the region’s hottest film locations on a luxury motor coach. There are more than 70 stops at the actual places where smash hits like The Sixth Sense, In Her Shoes, 12 Monkeys, Beloved, National Treasure, Philadelphia, Trading Places, the newly added Rocky Balboa, Invincible and more, were filmed.

The tour includes a run up the Rocky steps as well as other stops at iconic Philadelphia film locations. It is the ultimate experiential tour; chock full of ‘behind the scene’ anecdotes about the celebrities, from the sets, and with clips to help jog the memory and show how similar or vastly differently the locations look Up Close & Personal.

Passengers will learn interesting facts about what goes into making a blockbuster feature and why Philadelphia is one of the hottest locations in the world for making movies!

Specialty Solutions Group is the exclusive tour operator for “Philadelphia in the Movies” Tour. The 2 ½ hour tour steps off every Saturday at 10am from the Independence Visitor’s Center, Market @ 6th Street. Individual tickets are $35 (adults); $30 (seniors & children under 12 years).
