FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Subject Frank R. Reim, CPA, MT, Joins Heffler, Radetich & Saitta LLP as Manager of its Tax Services Group

Philadelphia, PA --- Frank R. Reim, CPA, MT, has joined the CPA and consulting firm of Heffler, Radetich & Saitta LLP, Philadelphia, as manager of its Tax Services Group. As manager, Reim, will provide tax planning and consulting services to businesses, not-for-profit organizations and individuals. He has extensive experience in conducting tax research, managing staff and representing clients before federal, state and local tax authorities.

With over 20 years of tax experience, Reim has served both global and domestic enterprises. He began his accounting career at Arthur Young and in 1989 joined BDO Seidman, LLP. Ten years later he became a tax manager at PricewaterhouseCoopers and left to manage the tax practice of a regional CPA and consulting firm. Most recently, he served as senior manager of a regional firm.

A graduate of Drexel University, Reim holds a master's degree in taxation. He earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Rutgers University. He is a member of the American Institute of CPAs.

Reim has written articles on state taxation for the Pennsylvania CPA Journal; and on individual tax planning for various suburban Philadelphia newspapers.

Frank and his wife, Adrienne, reside in Somerdale, Camden County, NJ.

Heffler, Radetich & Saitta LLP, is a full-service certified public accounting and consulting firm, serving a nationwide clientele comprised of high net worth individuals, closely-held and middle-market businesses, not-for-profit organizations, law firms, banks and governmental entities.
