SPW Productions is Honored by International Festivals and Events Association

Philadelphia, PA – November 5- SPW Productions garners the Silver Pinnacle Award to add to their mantle, for their work on the Ultimate Culinary Competition with a Cause – Rumble in the Kitchen.

IFEA, the International Festivals and Events Association, recently recognized SPW Productions, a full service event management, production, marketing and promotion agency with a Silver Pinnacle Award for their work on ‘Rumble in the Kitchen.’

Rumble in the Kitchen was hosted at the Loews Philadelphia Hotel on April 10, 2007. Four teams faced off in the kitchen using the ingredients provided to come up with a delicious dish to be tasted by judges. Teams were comprised of 8 non-professional chefs with each team representing one of the following charities: The Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, Susan G. Komen for the Cure, MANNA, and Project H.O.M.E. The event was sponsored by CBS 3, Philadelphia Magazine, Southern Wine and Spirits of Pennsylvania and Evariant Design. “Rumble in the Kitchen” is the brain child of David Hall, Director of Catering & Convention Services at the Loews Hotel, and was produced by SPW Productions.

SPW Productions is a comprehensive full service event production company, handling a variety of events including corporate, entertainment, industry, charity and more. The organization was founded by Sharon Phillips Waxman in 1994. Combining her passion for fashion and special events, SPW Productions has evolved into one of the most highly respected event production companies in the Greater Philadelphia Region with an ever expanding list of clients.
