UNIGLOBE WINGS TRAVEL WINS TOP REVENUE AGENCY SECOND YEAR IN A ROW

Blue Bell, Pennsylvania — UNIGLOBE Wings Travel was awarded Top Revenue Agency for 2006/2007 on September 29 at UNIGLOBE Travel USA's annual conference in Atlanta, Georgia.

Kate Murphy and Doug Carpenter, owners of UNIGLOBE Wings Travel, say that the key to their growth has been a focus on hiring excellent, experienced staff, which has allowed them to grow in every area of their business, including corporate, meetings, groups and leisure.

"This esteemed award recognizes the agency that has the highest revenue – a key figure for measuring volume in the travel industry. Kate and Doug are well-respected industry veterans, who year after year combine stellar personal service and use of state-of-the-art technology to service their clients, and they are extremely deserving of this award," says U. Gary Charlwood, Chairman and Founder of Uniglobe Travel International.

The UNIGLOBE Wings Travel staff have embraced technology by utilizing a variety of tools that allow them to be more productive, saving their customer's time and money. "Most importantly, the increase in productivity has allowed our staff to dedicate additional time to providing personalized top-notch service," said Murphy.

UNIGLOBE Wings Travel is also a founding member of UNIGLOBE Travel Partners, which formed in June 2007. Ten Uniglobe Travel agencies joined to form Uniglobe Travel Partners (UTP), a new national travel management company with a combined booked business of more than $200 million.

Murphy and Carpenter are also very active in many organizations like the American Society of Travel Agents (ASTA) and Vacation.com. They also sit on numerous prestigious industry committees and advisory boards, as well as many charitable organizations.
