

SAVE THE DATE:

CAREERPHILLY.COM ONLINE INTERNSHIP FAIR

PRESENTED BY CAMPUS PHILLY

FEBRUARY 23-29, 2008

Free registration begins January 7

For summer and fall college-level internships located in tri-state Greater Philadelphia

GREATER PHILADELPHIA – The CareerPhilly.com Online Internship Fair, a program of the regional nonprofit organization Campus Philly, is a dedicated week for college-level internship matching from February 23-29, 2008. At the online fair, regional employers can easily develop their workplace talent by recruiting the best and brightest college students for summer and fall positions.

Hosted by Campus Philly’s career-matching web site, www.careerphilly.com this virtual fair is designed to be a one-stop shop for employers to not only recruit talent, but also to help set up their interns for success with Campus Philly’s Internship-in-a-Box tool kit. the summer.

With support from the City of Philadelphia Commerce Department and the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation, The CareerPhilly.com Internship Fair is instrumental to Greater Philadelphia’s economic growth by supporting the knowledge economy and leading to the retention of college students after graduation. Registration begins January 7 at www.careerphilly.com. For more information or to post a position, please contact Karen Sugarman at 215.988.1707 or karen@campusphilly.org.

Campus Philly is a regional, nonprofit organization working with higher education, business, and public partners to connect college students to a “Greater” Philadelphia. We promote the city and region as “one big campus,” full of opportunities for personal and professional exploration throughout the student life cycle – from college prospect, to enrolled student, to recent graduate. Through positive first-hand experiences and better connections to the workforce, more college students are choosing to live and work in Greater Philadelphia after earning their degree.