What you will get from this group:

2. Reframe your negative messages in a positive manner.
3. Imagine your future success and use it to propel yourself forward.
4. Develop an action plan for your vision of your future successful self.
5. Clearly define and understand how you achieve your vision.
6. Develop a plan for the people side of your successful organization.

In an eight week teleclass, we will cover all of these items and more to help you beat the odds and establish and maintain a successful, thriving small business!

Why a teleclass? By using the telephone, you will save commute time; you do not have to dress up; you can maintain your confidentiality if you so desire — all positive reasons AND teleclasses are very effective.
