Philadelphia Federal Credit Union Supports Race for the Cure

May 21, 2008—Employees of Philadelphia Federal Credit enjoyed a beautiful sunny morning on Sunday, May 11 by lacing up their running shoes and participating in the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure. The Mothers Day event draws thousands of volunteers, and the PFCU participants were happy to show their support.

Employees were pleased to meet and have their picture taken with Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter who was also a participant of the event. The Philadelphia affiliate is dedicated to fulfilling the promise to save lives and end breast cancer forever by empowering people, ensuring quality care for all and energizing science to find the cure. PFCU has participated in the event for more than ten years.

PFCU was founded in 1951 and is currently among the top credit unions in the city, serving the entire Philadelphia and Bloomsburg, PA communities, in addition to the owners, employees and directors of over 600 organizations throughout Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware. For more information, visit pfcu.com, stop by one of the branches, or call 215-934-3500 or 800-832-PFCU (outside the metropolitan area).
