PHILADELPHIA – Stradley Ronon chairman and chairman of the Free Library of Philadelphia Foundation William R. Sasso hosted U.S. Congresswoman Nancy Pelosi for a discussion of her book Know Your Power: A Message to America's Daughters at the Free Library of Philadelphia. Pelosi is the first woman to lead a major party in Congress as well as the first female Speaker of the House.

Sasso has served as chairman of Stradley Ronon's 190-plus attorney firm since 1994. In addition, he is widely recognized for his civic accomplishments including serving as former chairman of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce's board of directors, as a member of the Philadelphia Convention & Visitors Bureau board and executive committee, a trustee of his alma mater LaSalle University, and as a trustee of Leo Niessen Jr. Charitable Foundation.
