

Press Release

For Immediate Release

Volunteers of America Delaware Valley 2008 Pro-Am Golf Tournament

The Volunteers of America Delaware Valley 2008 Pro-Am Tournament will be hosted by Little Mill Country Club in Marlton, NJ on Tuesday, Sept. 30. Registration begins at 7:30 a.m., with a shotgun start at 9 a.m.

Lem Burnham, senior vice president of development and communications for Volunteers of America Delaware Valley, says golfers will have a chance to play a “fantastic” private course and raise money for a very worthy cause. Professionals from the PGA’s Philadelphia section will play with each amateur threesome.

“If you want to know how good a golfer you are, from tee to green, this is a golden opportunity,” says Burnham, an accomplished golfer and former Philadelphia Eagle. The tournament will feature Hole-in-One and Longest Drive contests – with prizes including luxury cars from Holman Enterprises - as well as giveaways, a silent auction, and a gourmet lunch in the Clubhouse.

The Hosting Sponsorship for this year’s Pro-Am is available for $25,000. Additional sponsorship opportunities also are available. For further details, please contact Lem Burnham at Volunteers of America at (856) 854-4660, Extension 140, or send Lem an e-mail at lburnham@voadv.org.

Proceeds from this year’s fundraiser will support programs for homeless families, ex-offenders, and people struggling with alcoholism, addiction or mental illness in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware.