

VQC Philadelphia Press Release

VQC Designs invites you to join us for our Ribbon Cutting Ceremony for our New Philadelphia office. The celebration will be held on Thursday November 20th at 1315 Walnut St , Suite 700 Philadelphia, PA 19107. The event time 4:30pm- 7:00pm. The ribbon will be cut promptly at 5:30. The event will be catered and one lucky winner will receive our door prize. We hope to see you all there for this ground breaking event.

After 6 years of providing outstanding web services to the Central Pennsylvania market, VQC Designs is excited to announce the opening of their Philadelphia satellite office. VQC has built a reputation as the premier web services provider in Central PA by providing excellent customer service and fanatical support.

With the opening of our Philadelphia office, we hope to expand our client base and help businesses throughout the city and the surrounding areas succeed online.

In addition, we have planned a number of different events to help promote VQC and also benefit the local business community. One bi- monthly event to keep your eyes on is our business networking mixer. With this event, we hope to add a new twist to all the other networking functions out there.
