Philadelphia, PA, November 25, 2008 – Philadelphia Federal Credit Union was recently honored by the Philadelphia Daily News as having the “Best Banking Services.”

All award winners were selected by Daily News readers and were published in a special winner’s section on Wednesday, November 19. This is the first time that a credit union has received this honor.

“We are honored to receive this award from our members,” said PFCU President/CEO Jim McAneny. “It’s great to know that our members realize they can trust PFCU with all of their financial needs,” said McAneny.

Ballots ran in four consecutive Wednesday Daily News issues and readers had the opportunity to vote for their favorites in various categories.

Philadelphia Federal Credit Union was founded in 1951 and is currently among the top credit unions in the city, serving the entire Philadelphia and Bloomsburg, PA communities, in addition to the owners, employees and directors of over 400 organizations throughout Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.
