PFCU Helped to Keep People Warm for the Winter

Philadelphia, PA, February 2, 2009 – Philadelphia Federal Credit Union once again partnered with the Philadelphia Cares Organization this winter season in effort to collect coats for those in need.

Every year, thousands of men, women, and children in the Greater Philadelphia region live through the cold winter season without a coat to keep them warm. Through the Philadelphia Cares' Thirteenth Annual Winter Coat Drive, PFCU helped to provide this basic necessity.

PFCU offered its seven branches as drop-off points for the coat drive. Members and area residents contributed by dropping off new or "gently used" winter coats in designated bins at all PFCU branches. By the coat drive's end on January 19, PFCU collected over 550 coats at its branch locations throughout Philadelphia.

Year round, Greater Philadelphia Cares partners with Philadelphia-region non-profit agencies, schools, government agencies, and environmental organizations to make a positive impact in our city. To find out about Philadelphia Cares programs, visit www.philacares.com.

Philadelphia Federal Credit Union was founded in 1951 and is currently among the top credit unions in the city, serving the entire Philadelphia and Bloomsburg, PA communities, in addition to the owners, employees and directors of over 400 organizations throughout Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.
