Stradley Ronon Attorney Elected to Presbyterian Church Board of Deacons

PHILADELPHIA – Stradley Ronon attorney Jason Jones was elected to serve a three-year term on the Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill (PCCH) Board of Deacons, a group responsible for responding to those in need in the church and community. PCCH offers various religious and educational services that focus on faith, discipleship and friendship.

As an associate in Stradley Ronon’s business practice group, Jones counsels clients in the areas of mergers and acquisitions, the formation, structure and governance of limited liability companies, compliance with federal and state securities laws, dissolution of corporations and other entities, contracts and general corporate matters.
