

Philly Unites The Globe For A Week

Global Fusion Week will unite the globe for an entire week by providing the community with Global Fusion themed activities, discounts, specials, and performances planned throughout the City from Monday, July 13 - Saturday, July 18, 2009.

The week's main attraction is the not-to-miss signature, FREE Global Fusion Festival at Penn's Landing taking place on Saturday, July 18, 2009 from noon - 8pm.

Highly acclaimed Hip-Hop/R&B inspired group, Bell Biv DeVoe, R&B soloist Bobby Valentino, and Gospel sensation James Fortune are three of the many headliners for this year's Global Fusion Festival. Invite the family to come out and vibe to non-stop main stage entertainment from local cultural performers representing the best in Hip-Hop, Salsa, Reggae, Reggaeton, Bachata, and Bhangra. The festival also offers off stage must-sees from cultural arts and crafts vendors, international food, and a children's pavilion filled with make-and-take art. New this year, is a custom motorsports showcase featuring the latest custom cars and motorcycles plus, get a sneak-peak look at 2010 models during the festival.

The entire line-up of activities for the week and the FREE concert will excite the rhythms within your soul...and keep your feet tapping all day long.

Register for your chance to win VIP Meet & Greet festival tickets, updates, and a list of artists and times or call (215)-636-3322 for more details.
