

FOR RELEASE:
FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Upon Receipt
Alexa Novachek
215-934-3577

Philadelphia Federal Credit Union Hosts Hollywood Party for Employees

Philadelphia, PA, July 6, 2009 – From Pinocchio to Napoleon Dynamite to a movie director, PFCU employees dressed the part for their employee picnic.

The Hollywood theme served as the background for the employee appreciation barbeque, where the human resources department served hamburgers, hot dogs, grilled chicken and assorted salads.

Employees were encouraged to dress according to the theme and participate in the festivities, including games like “Whose Line Is It Anyway” and “Name That Celebrity.” Different departments even collaborated to reenact various movie scenes from The Wizard of Oz and Forrest Gump, complete with handmade props.

Each year, PFCU provides an annual barbeque for the employees as its way of showing appreciation for their hard work and dedication throughout the year.

PFCU was founded in 1951 and is currently among the top credit unions in the city, serving the entire Philadelphia and Bloomsburg, PA communities, in addition to the owners, employees and directors of over 400 organizations throughout Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.

###

Photos:

PinkLadies.jpg- PFCU employees dressed as the Pink Ladies from Grease pose with movie stars