Pennoni's King of Prussia Office Welcomes New Inspection and Testing Division Manager

PHILADELPHIA – Pennoni Associates, an award-winning consulting engineering firm headquartered in Philadelphia, is pleased to announce that Leonard Nardone, P.E., has joined its King of Prussia Office as Fabrication Inspection Division Manager. Mr. Nardone is a Registered Professional Engineer in PA and NY.

Specializing in Project and Construction Management, Mr. Nardone will be responsible for the overall leadership and management of Pennoni's Fabrication Inspection Division. A current member of the American Society of Highway Engineers, Mr. Nardone most recently served as a Project Manager for TranSystems Corporation in Langhorne, PA.

"We are very excited to have Len join Pennoni Associates," stated Andrew J. Pennoni, P.E., Vice President and Inspection and Testing Technology Principal. "Len's extensive background working for and with DOT's in bridge design and construction will be an asset to our team."

Mr. Nardone earned a BS degree in Civil Engineering from Drexel University. He and his wife, Dawn, along with children Julia and Luca, reside in King of Prussia, PA.
