Stradley Ronon Partner Elected to Academy in Manayunk Board

PHILADELPHIA – Stradley Ronon partner Alan Gedrich has been elected to the Board of Trustees of the Academy in Manayunk (AIM), a Philadelphia-based private school educating intelligent children with learning disabilities in grades 1 through 12. AIM is also a professional development center for educators in the Delaware Valley who then introduce the latest research-based learning practices to schools throughout the region for children with learning disabilities.

As a member of the firm's investment management practice group, Gedrich counsels investment funds, including mutual funds, hedge funds and private equity firms and their investment advisors.
