Linebarger Goggan Blair & Sampson, LLP named top company for women by PINK magazine
Law firm has prominent presence in Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA – The prominent law firm Linebarger Goggan Blair & Sampson, LLP has been named one of the Top Companies for Women in 2009. The distinction was made by PINK magazine which noted that more companies are recognizing the importance of women’s advancement in the workplace. Linebarger Goggan Blair & Sampson, LLP was the only law firm selected in the nation and joins an elite group of honorees.

The magazine selected its honorees based on women’s high representation in positions of power among top earners and by examining management’s commitment to its female staff. The magazine also took into consideration the life/work balance in terms of giving women equal opportunity for a rewarding life away from the office.

“Working at Linebarger these past nineteen years has been a rewarding and fulfilling experience, both personally and professionally,” said Sharon N. Humble, Managing Partner of Communications and Marketing and founding partner of the firm’s Philadelphia office. “I’ve been with this firm since I graduated college, even before I went to law school, and there has always been opportunity for advancements and new challenges. As much as I could and wanted to handle, this firm has provided that opportunity.”

Linebarger Goggan Blair & Sampson, LLP is the largest law firm in the United States that dedicates its practice to the collection of government receivables and delinquent taxes. The company has more than 1,500 employees and more than 1,000 are women. The firm carries a 90% retention rate of executive level women.

“We are proud to be recognized by PINK magazine for our contributions to a positive workforce environment. We take pride in making Linebarger a great place for all our employees,” said Drew Aldinger, Managing Attorney of the Philadelphia office of Linebarger Goggan Blair and Sampson, LLP.

Linebarger joins an impressive list of companies being honored, including American Express, Capital One, KPMG, Liz Claiborne, Manpower, MetLife, Turner Broadcasting System and Wal-Mart.

In Pennsylvania, the law firm is a top collector of delinquent property taxes and other government receivables.
