Pennoni Regional Transportation Manager Elected as President of ACEC/DE

PHILADELPHIA – Pennoni Associates, an award-winning consulting engineering firm headquartered in Philadelphia, is pleased to announce the election of Ted F. Januszka, P.E., as President of the American Council of Engineering Companies of Delaware (ACEC/DE). A Pennoni employee of 14 years, Mr. Januszka currently serves as the Regional Transportation Manager for the Wilmington, DE office and has extensive experience with the design and management of transportation, highway, bridge and infrastructure improvement projects in Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Maryland.

As ACEC/DE President, Mr. Januszka will be charged with leading the organization, including regular program offerings as well as interaction with government officials and clients. His term began on July 1, 2009, and will continue through June 30, 2011. Mr. Januszka, who has been a member of ACEC/DE since 2000, previously served as Secretary as well as Vice President. He is a current participant of the membership and transportation committees.

“It is always encouraging to see young professionals serve in leadership roles with organizations like the ACEC,” stated Eric Flicker, P.E., Pennoni CFO and former Chairman of ACEC National. “Ted has been an exemplary contributor through his service to the engineering industry. He puts a face on engineering to the public.”

ACEC/DE consists of 30 member firms comprised of over 700 employees and serves as the state member organization of American Council of Engineering Companies, which includes 5,500 firms throughout the country. ACEC/DE is a non-profit, self-governing organization of consulting engineering firms of various disciplines. Together, the member firms are dedicated to encouraging the highest technical and ethical standards of the profession while advancing the business of engineers as consultants.
