Settlement Music School is the largest community school of the arts in the United States. With six locations in South, West and Northeast Philadelphia, Germantown, Jenkintown and Camden, New Jersey, the School annually serves more than 15,000 students and awards close to $2 million in financial aid each year. Settlement is dedicated to a mission of providing the highest quality instruction and activity in music and related arts of all abilities without regard to age, race or financial circumstances. They are the largest employer of musicians in the area with more than 250 highly trained faculty on staff.

Since 1908, Settlement has served over 300,000 students. There is at least one Settlement alumni in every major symphony in the United States. Among its alumni are a Nobel Laureate, a MacArthur Fellow, three Pulitzer Prize winners, two Academy Award winners, several elected officials and many distinguished performers in all genres of music.
