Sharon Phillips Waxman
PRESENTED WITH ISES ESPRIT AWARD
International Special Events Society

Sharon Phillips Waxman, President of SPW Productions, Sewell, NJ has been awarded the prestigious ISES Esprit Award from the International Special Events Society (ISES) in the category of Best Social Event for Phashion Phest.

Sharon Phillips Waxman has been a special event professional for twenty five years. In that time, Sharon has also been awarded the International Festivals & Events Association's Gold, Silver and Bronze Pinnacle Awards. Most recently, Waxman was awarded the Liberty Award for Best Event Planner by the Philadelphia Chapter of ISES for Taste of Philadelphia – a three day outdoor food festival at Penn's Landing as part of Sunoco Welcome America.

The winning event for a 2009 ISES Esprit Award was Phashion Phest. Now in its' 16th year, Phashion Phest is the Delaware Valley's premiere fashion & beauty event attended by 2000 guests annually for a spectacular runway fashion show and glamorous cocktail reception.

"Phashion Phest is a labor of love" says Waxman. "It is a one of a kind event that brings together the top retailers, salons and accessory retailers to showcase what is available for the fall season in the Philadelphia market. It is a must-attend event on the fall social calendar."

ISES honors industry excellence through its prestigious awards program, the ISES Esprit Awards which fuel a spirit of competition within designated categories. ISES Esprit Awards gain global visibility and recognition for ISES members. It honors special event professionals who exhibit a "spirit of excellence" in their work. The importance of global industry recognition helps improve industry standards internationally and further promote our professionalism. ISES is dedicated to recognizing excellence in events and honoring those individuals whose vision and creativity make their events "Special."
