October 8, 2009, Montgomeryville, PA. Richard Jasper, Chairman and CEO, Compliance Management International (CMI) headquartered in Montgomeryville, Pennsylvania, is pleased to announce the appointment of two prominent civic leaders to its Board of Advisors.

As a leading provider of environmental, health and safety services to industry, CMI provides expertise for industry to comply with costly and burdensome environmental, health and safety regulations. CMI also offers value added services in as energy efficiency and training as well as loss prevention/risk management, fleet safety and workers' compensation management.

The two Advisory Board appointees are:

JOSEPH W. "Chip" MARSHALL, III, former Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, Temple University Health System, has over 20 years experience as executive and legal counsel to hospital and health care systems. He served as founding principal of Goldman and Marshall, a law firm specializing in corporate health law to national clientele. Mr. Marshall serves on many boards including the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board where he was the first person appointed to the seven person Board, Medicaid Commission, Temple University, the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and the Hospital and Health System Association of Pennsylvania.

DANIEL E. BEREN is chairman emeritus of the State Government Relations Section of Buchanan Ingersoll & Rooney PC, the largest government relations sections of any law firm in Pennsylvania. Mr. Beren has experience both as legislator and lobbyist. As a member of the General Assembly for ten years, he served on committees including transportation and mines and minerals. He accomplished major legislative victories in areas of taxation, transportation including tax credits and modernization of ports. Mr. Beren was included in the 2007 and 2008 editions of the Best Lawyers in America.
