Nathan M. Cline, P.E., S.E.O., Receives Young Engineer of the Year Award

PHILADELPHIA – Pennoni Associates, an award-winning consulting engineering firm headquartered in Philadelphia, is pleased to announce that Nathan M. Cline, P.E., S.E.O., has recently received the Pennsylvania Society of Professional Engineers (PSPE) Delaware County Chapter Young Engineer of the Year Award. Mr. Cline is the Municipal Division Manager for Pennoni's West Chester office.

Mr. Cline's experience as a Municipal Engineer has proven to be valuable to many communities throughout the region. He is experienced in the design, permitting, contract administration and construction surveillance of public infrastructure improvements including stormwater, road improvements and sanitary sewer projects. In his capacity as Township Engineer, he is also knowledgeable in the administration and review of subdivision and land development plans, code compliance, and erosion and sediment control permit reviews.

"Nate is a great engineer and a true leader. He has been an exemplary contributor through his service to the engineering industry and the community," stated David Pennoni, PE, Vice President of Pennoni Associates. "He is well deserving of this prestigious award."

Mr. Cline was born on June 16, 1978 in Latrobe, PA and is now a five year resident of Haverford Township, Delaware County, PA. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering from Villanova University in 2000 and a Master of Science degree in Engineering Management from Drexel University in 2008. He is an active member of the community through numerous appointments as Township Engineer and frequently attends Board of Supervisors, Planning Commission and Zoning Hearing Board meetings for the townships he represents. Nate is a member of several industry organizations, including the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), PA Association – Sewage Enforcement Officers, and Chester County Engineers.
