

White-William Scholars Holds April Scavenger Hunt

White-Williams Scholars is one of the oldest non-profit organizations in the country. Our mission is to inspire and support high achieving Philadelphia public high school students of limited financial means to fulfill their potential through academic, social and financial means.

We are seeking sponsors for a unique and fun-filled Scavenger Hunt event to be held on Saturday, April 17, 2010, 9:30am-1:30pm.

Five-person teams will search a 10-block radius of Old City for clues relating to White-Williams Scholars rich history and facts about education. Over a two-hour period, teams consisting of current students, alumni, board members and your employees with cameras in-hand, will compete to see who will be the first team to find all of the clues. A special Post-Hunt celebration will give everyone an opportunity to see the pictures and enjoy a bite to eat while raising funds and awareness for a great cause!

Corporate Sponsors are needed to ensure that White-Williams Scholars can continue to help Philadelphia's most talented and motivated students reach their full potential. For more information, please contact Sara Manning, Director of Development at 215-735-4480 ext. 204 or smanning@wwscholars.org.