PFCU Employees “Take their Children to Work”

Philadelphia, PA, May 3, 2010 –Philadelphia Federal Credit Union hosted its annual Take Your Child to Work Day event for employees’ children on Thursday, April 22.

Children, who ranged in ages from 8-13, gathered at PFCU’s Operations Center and participated in an array of activities including a tour of the facility and career choice discussions. Also, PFCU’s Accredited Financial Educator, Karl Bernhard presented a seminar about “Understanding Money and Savings.” To wrap up the day, children took part in a discussion on how to make choices to help the environment and planted seeds to take home.

“Take Your Child to Work Day is a great opportunity for children to understand their parents’ professions,” said PFCU President/CEO James McAneney. “We look forward to hosting the event every year. It allows children to observe the workplace environment and provides them the opportunity to view what their parents do while at work.”

PFCU was founded in 1951 and is currently among the top credit unions in the city, serving the entire Philadelphia and Bloomsburg, PA communities, in addition to the owners, employees and directors of over 400 organizations throughout Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.
