

Lincoln University to hold press conference

LINCOLN UNIVERSITY, Pa. - The Lincoln University of Pennsylvania will hold a press conference at 2 p.m. on Monday, July 12, in the Ware Center regarding its athletic programs and NCAA membership status.

Among those in attendance will be President Ivory V. Nelson, Director of Athletics Dianthia Ford-Kee, head football coach O.J. Abanishe and several Lincoln student-athletes.

The historic press conference will be broadcast live on <http://www.ustream.tv/channel/meetinghouse-media>.

- LU -

Office of Sports Information

Lincoln University * 15710 Baltimore Pike * Lincoln University, PA 19352

Lincoln University - founded in 1854 as the nation's first Historically Black University - combines the best elements of a liberal arts and sciences-based undergraduate core curriculum and selected graduate programs to meet the needs of those living in a highly technological and global society. The University enrolls approximately 2,500 undergraduate and graduate students.

Internationally recognized for preparing learners and producing world-class leaders in their fields, Lincoln has created five academic Centers of Excellence-programs of distinctions. They are:

Lincoln-Barnes Visual Arts, Grand Research Educational Awareness and Training (GREAT) for Minority Health, Mass Communications, Teacher Education and Urban Pedagogy and Business and Information Technology.